

2 Drafting

Now, you have to draft a postcard to Macy telling her about your stay in Singapore.

Text Type: Postcard  Reader(s): Macy

Tone: Informal  Tense(s): Present, past & future tenses

How should you respond to Macy's postcard?

Dear Macy,

(response to Macy)

How is the weather now?

I'm having a good time visiting (place)

I'm staying here with (people) in my aunt's home. The weather is (weather)

What are you doing now?

I (activity) at a café and writing this (text type) now!

Tell Macy about its location.

- What tourist attractions did you visit?
- What did you do there?
- How did you feel?

We went to (place) with my aunt and cousin yesterday. It's located (location)

Can you name some attractions and facilities in Sentosa?

We can enjoy (attractions)

It's very suitable for (kind of people). We first

(activity)

What did you do at those attractions?

Then, we (activity)

I (feeling)

CLASSROOM
Online World
學 · 習 · 平 · 台

You can download the suggested answers to this section from our website as a reference.

- What tourist attraction are you going to visit?
- How is it? How will you feel?

Tomorrow we (activity & place)

(comment). The hawker centres in

Singapore are like the 'Tai Pai Dong' in Hong Kong, but they're (comment)

I think we'll all like it because the food is said to be

(reason)

There are many choices, from barbecued food like

(example)

to soup noodles like

(example)

I strongly recommend you to try the local food as (reason)

What tense should you use for your future plans?

Why will you like it?

Can you name some examples of food?

Why do you recommend Macy to try Singaporean food?

- Do you have any expectation or wish for Macy?

I really (expectation / wish)

(close)

(close)

Kelly

P.S. (short message)

Have you forgotten to tell Macy something? Write here.