

2 Drafting

Now, you have to draft a leaflet on giant pandas.

Text Type: Leaflet  Reader(s): Teachers & students
Tone: Semi-formal  Tense(s): Present tenses

Introduce the type of endangered animals and describe their features generally.

What are the special features of this type of animals?

CLASSROOM
Online World
學·習·平·台

You can download the suggested answers to this section from our website as a reference.

How many of them are left today? Where can they be found?

- (Title)
- What is their appearance?
  - What do they eat?

Description of Giant Pandas

Giant pandas belong to the (group).

They are (appearance).

Their fur is (colours) in colour. They have (characteristics).

Their eyes are (description).

They mainly feed on (food).

- What is their total number?
- Where can they be found?

Total Number & Where They Can Be Found

Giant pandas are endangered animals. There are about

(number) today and they can

(locations).

- How do human activities endanger them?
- How does birth rate affect the population of them?

Why Are They Endangered?

(reason 1) and

people have to clear large pieces of land, giant pandas

(result). Another reason is that people (reason 2).

Their (reason 3) is the (adjectives)

reason.

Give the reasons one by one.

- Is there any organisation that helps the endangered pandas?

What Can We Do?

(organisation)

has developed a conservation management plan to save and breed more pandas. Many people will be happy

(wish).

The organisation needs money to work and run efficiently. We can (action).

What is the organisation?

What will people be happy with?

What can we do to help save the animals?