

2 Drafting

Now, you have to draft a reply letter to Peony telling her which places you are going to visit with her in two days' time.

Text Type: Personal letter  Reader(s): Peony
Tone: Informal  Tense(s): Present & future tenses

How do you feel about Peony's visit to Hong Kong?

Reply to Peony's request.

What is the first place to go?

When will you start going out with Peony?

Explain why you will bring Peony there.

Where and what else will you go and do with Peony?

Dear (Peony),
How (adjective) I am! I _____
(reply to a request)

- Which tourist spot will you take Peony to first?
- How can you get there?
- Why is it so special?
- What activities can you do there?

On the first day, I'll take you to (attraction). We'll set off
(time). It was built (location).
We can get there by (transport).
(reason)

We'll (attraction)
(activity) there.

- Which tourist spot will you take Peony to next?
- Why is it so special?
- What activities can you do there?
- Where else will you go with her?

On the second day, we can go to (attraction) together. (further details)

You can find a (place) and a (place) there. We can (activity / place / brief description)

- What do you want to hear from Peony?

(your expectation)
(close)
(signature)

Can you suggest another interesting place to go with Peony?

Give a reason why you will bring Peony there.

To be polite, ask what she thinks about the tourist spots! Does she like them or not?