Title	My Life in Hong Kong
Opening paragraph	Hello, guys! I am Amanda Brown. I am a 7 th Grader in Classroom International School and I'm 12 years old. You're welcome to view my blog and leave comments.
Body	Let me tell you more about myself. I come from an American family. I have an elder brother, Tommy, who's a year older than me, and a younger sister, Lisa, who's only 5 years old. My parents are very nice but my brother is a little bit bossy. I was born in Hong Kong. My parents came to Hong Kong two years before my birth because my dad found a nice job here. We really enjoy the local culture and food. On Sundays, we usually go to a nearby Chinese restaurant to have dim sum. About my personality, people often think foreigners are talkative and outgoing; however, I'm kind of quiet. That doesn't mean I am unfriendly. I am a friendly and considerate person and all my friends love to hang out with me. As for my school life, I really enjoy it very much. My classmates and I play a lot of different sports, like squash, hockey and even golf. Among all these, I like squash the most. We also have a lot of chances to perform on stage. My friends and I formed a band and perform every Friday morning. What do you guys do at school?
Closing paragraph	What else do you want to know about me? I'd love to make more friends so please leave me some comments. All the best! Posted by AmandaBn at 7:30 pm
