Title	The Tiger in the Woods
Background	Tiger Woods is a famous golfer. His full name is Eldrick Tont Woods. He was born in 1975 in Cypress, America. His height is six foot one and he weighs 90kg. He has been a professional golfer since August 1996.
Early life	He is the only child of Earl and Kultida Woods. His parents found out his talent at an unusually early age. They said that he was playing with a putter before he could walk. At the age of three, he was first on TV and won his first putting contest.
Achievements	Woods has won a lot of prizes in different golf matches over the years. He, at the age of 21, was the youngest man to win the US Masters in 1997. In the same year, he also became the youngest-ever number one golfer in the world. Although he dropped out of golf between 2009 and 2010, he was named the highest-paid professional athlete from 2001 to 2012.
Current life	In 2009, he withdrew from his favourite sport because of his personal life. He returned to golf a year later, but his performance was not as good as before. Over the past three years, however, his hard work has helped him earn his world number one back. He is now the best golfer in the world again.
Expectation	Woods once said in an interview that he was more at peace with his personal life and golf then. He also hoped that there would be more and more victories waiting for him to claim.
